

Name: _____

Date: _____

Conjunctions

Level 1: ★

1. Choose the correct subordinating conjunction to complete the sentence:

- a) I stayed at home _____ it was raining.
 i. because ii. although iii. since iv. for
- b) She worked hard _____ she could pass the exam.
 i. so that ii. but iii. because iv. Although
- c) She didn't go to the party _____ she was feeling sick.
 i. because ii. so iii. although iv. For
- d) _____ he studied hard, he didn't pass the test.
 i. Because ii. Although iii. Since iv. For

2. Write the subordinating conjunction to complete each sentence and categorise it according to its purpose (purpose, cause, contrast, or time):

- a) I will study hard _____ I can pass the exam.
- b) _____ she was tired, she kept working.
- c) I ate breakfast _____ I left for school.
- d) I waited for you _____ you arrived.

Level 2: ★ ★

3. Determine whether the statement about conjunctions is True or False:

- a) "Although" is a subordinating conjunction used for contrast and concession.
- b) "So that" is used for expressing purpose.
- c) "Because" is used to indicate time.
- d) "When" is a subordinating conjunction used for quick follow-up action.
- e) "If" is used to show cause and reason.

4. Underline the subordinating conjunction in each sentence:

- a) Since it was raining, we decided to stay indoors.
- b) Although he was tired, he continued working.
- c) He left the party after he said goodbye to everyone.
- d) When I finish my work, I'll go for a walk.

Level 3: ★ ★ ★

5. Identify the error in the sentence and correct it:

- a) I will wait here since you arrive.
- b) Unless he studied, he failed the exam.
- c) She stayed up late so she had to study.
- d) I don't like ice cream if I have allergies.

6. Form a sentence using the given subordinating conjunction:

- | | | | |
|-------------|------------|----------|-----------|
| a) Although | c) Since | e) When | g) If |
| b) Because | d) So that | f) After | h) Before |