

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transition Words

Level 1: ★

1. Write the purpose for the given words:

- | | | |
|----------------|----------------------|----------------|
| a) However | d) Finally | g) To conclude |
| b) First | e) Moreover | h) Next |
| c) For example | f) On the other hand | i) To sum up |

2. Circle the transition word showing contrast:

- | | |
|--|---|
| a) She is poor; however, she is happy. | e) We wanted to go out; however, it rained. |
| b) He worked hard; but he failed. | f) She was tired, but she continued. |
| c) She is tall, yet she runs slowly. | g) They are young, yet very wise. |
| d) He is rich; nevertheless, he is humble. | h) It looks easy; however, it is difficult. |

Level 2: ★ ★

3. Choose the correct transition word: first, next, then, finally:

- _____, she opened the gift.
- I woke up early; _____, I had breakfast.
- _____, we watched a movie.
- We bought tickets. _____, we entered the hall.
- He studied hard. _____, he passed.
- I finished my homework. _____, I played.

4. Fill in with: but, however, yet, on the other hand:

- | | |
|--|--|
| a) She is tall, _____ her sister is short. | e) She is tired, _____ she won't stop. |
| b) He is poor, _____ he is honest. | f) He studied hard, _____ failed. |
| c) I like tea, _____ I don't like coffee. | g) The road is narrow, _____ safe. |
| d) It is raining; _____, we will still go. | h) I love summer. _____, it is very hot. |

Level 3: ★ ★ ★

5. Say whether the use of the transition word is correct:

- First, we will finish our homework.
- She is poor; but she is honest.
- I like fruits; such as apples.
- Finally, the bus arrived.
- Moreover, he is very tall.
- To sum up, we enjoyed the trip.
- I love sweets, like chocolate and cake.

6. Replace the bold transition with a more suitable one and explain why:

- She was tired; also, she kept working.
- For example, we reached home late.
- I like apples; in conclusion, I eat them every day.
- He is poor; moreover, he is happy.
- Finally, she sings and dances well.
- She studied hard; but, she passed with flying colours.
- I stayed home; such as, it was raining.
- He explained the lesson; however, gave many examples.