

Name: _____

Date: _____

Adjectives

Level 3: ★★ ★

1. Change the adjective or its modifier to make the sentence more precise or appropriate:

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| a) The soup was very hot .         | e) The athlete was completely tired . |
| b) The task was quite impossible . | f) The room looked fairly spotless .  |
| c) The hall was absolutely clean . | g) The exam was extremely easy .      |
| d) The idea was very unique .      | h) The film was totally hilarious .   |

2. Rewrite each sentence using a stronger or weaker adjective as directed in brackets:

- The soup is cold. (Use a stronger adjective.)
- The film was hilarious. (Use a weaker adjective.)
- The bag is heavy. (Use a stronger adjective.)
- The idea is impossible. (Use a weaker adjective.)
- The house is old. (Use a stronger adjective.)
- The performance was perfect. (Use a weaker adjective.)
- The story is boring. (Use a stronger adjective.)
- The boy is terrified. (Use a weaker adjective.)

3. Each sentence contains a mistake in adjective or modifier usage. Rewrite it correctly.

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| a) This coffee is absolutely hot.          | e) His room is totally dirty.               |
| b) She felt very exhausted after the game. | f) The answer is very impossible.           |
| c) The film was completely funny.          | g) The weather was extremely perfect.       |
| d) It's quite freezing outside.            | h) She was completely tired after the hike. |

4. Compare the pairs of adjectives and explain how their intensity or meaning differs:

- |                       |                         |                       |
|-----------------------|-------------------------|-----------------------|
| a) Cold vs. Freezing  | e) Tired vs. Exhausted  | i) Hot vs. Boiling    |
| b) Angry vs. Furious  | f) Afraid vs. Terrified | j) Clean vs. Spotless |
| c) Dirty vs. Filthy   | g) Tasty vs. Delicious  | k) Bad vs. Terrible   |
| d) Large vs. Enormous | h) Old vs. Ancient      | l) Happy vs. Ecstatic |

5. Transform the sentences so that they include an extreme or absolute adjective instead of a regular gradable one. Explain how the change affects tone or intensity.

- |                                   |                                 |
|-----------------------------------|---------------------------------|
| a) The house was very clean.      | e) The mountain was very high.  |
| b) The child was very afraid.     | f) The test was very difficult. |
| c) The day was very cold.         | g) The cake was very tasty.     |
| d) The performance was very good. | h) The box was very full.       |

6. Rewrite each sentence by replacing the adjective with another that changes the tone or intensity while keeping the sentence logical. Briefly describe how the meaning changes.

- |  |                                      |
|--|--------------------------------------|
| a) The child was happy to see his parents. | e) The singer's voice was beautiful. |
| b) The movie was boring from start to end. | f) The building looked old and dull. |
| c) The weather was cold during the trip.   | g) The argument was intense.         |
| d) The teacher gave a strict warning.      | h) The sunset was stunning.          |