

Name: _____

Date: _____

Conjunctions

Level 1: ★

1. Underline the coordinating conjunction in each sentence:

- | | |
|--|--|
| a) She can sing, and she can dance. | e) He was tired, yet he kept working. |
| b) You can take the bus, or you can walk. | f) The bell rang, so the students went home. |
| c) He is tall, yet he runs slowly. | g) He is poor, but he is honest. |
| d) We studied hard, so we passed the test. | h) We stayed home, for it was raining. |

2. Choose the correct option to complete the compound sentence:

- | | |
|--|--|
| a) He worked hard, ___ he got a prize.
A. or B. so C. though D. because | f) He is honest, ___ he is poor.
A. because B. so C. and D. yet |
| b) I like pizza, ___ I don't like pasta.
A. but B. because C. when D. as | g) It was late, ___ I went to bed.
A. but B. so C. or D. nor |
| c) I fell down, ___ I didn't get hurt.
A. but B. so C. and D. because | h) The shop was closed, ___ we went home.
A. or B. so C. and D. but |
| d) The dog barked, ___ the cat ran away.
A. and B. if C. because D. as | i) He worked hard, ___ he failed.
A. or B. but C. so D. and |
| e) She is young, ___ she is very responsible.
A. but B. so C. or D. because | j) She is not lazy, ___ is she careless.
A. and B. nor C. so D. but |

3. Write T (True) or F (False):

- | | |
|---------------------------------|--|
| a) "And" joins similar ideas. | d) "Yet" means the same as "and." |
| b) "But" shows contrast. | e) "Nor" is used after "neither." |
| c) "So" shows cause and effect. | f) Every sentence must have a conjunction. |

4. Choose the correct conjunction: and, or, but, so, yet, nor:

- | | |
|---|--|
| a) I like tea, ___ I don't like coffee. | g) She sings well, ___ she dances beautifully. |
| c) She was late, ___ she missed the bus. | h) I was hungry, ___ I ate an apple. |
| d) He can play football ___ cricket. | i) He was tired, ___ he finished his homework. |
| e) I studied hard, ___ I scored good marks. | j) They were not rude, ___ were they careless. |
| f) He is poor, ___ he is honest. | k) She is rich, ___ she is not happy. |

5. Circle the correct sentence:

- I like tea, and I like coffee. / I like tea, nor I like coffee.
- He worked hard, but he passed. / He worked hard, so he passed.
- She is poor, so she is honest. / She is poor, yet she is honest.
- You can stay here, or you can leave. / You can stay here, but you can leave.
- They played cricket, and they enjoyed it. / They played cricket, so they enjoyed it.
- I knocked on the door, so no one opened. / I knocked on the door, but no one opened.
- She sings well, and she dances well. / She sings well, or she dances well.
- The sun set, and the stars appeared. / The sun set, so the stars appeared.