

Name: _____

Date: _____

Conjunctions

Level 2: ★★

1. Which conjunction is being used in each sentence?

a) We can go to the park, or we can stay home.

A. choice B. reason C. contrast

b) She sings, and she dances.

A. addition B. contrast C. result

c) He is rich, yet he is unhappy.

A. addition B. contrast C. cause

d) Neither he nor his friend came.

A. choice B. negative addition C. result

e) The shop was closed, so we went home.

A. result B. contrast C. addition

f) He was tired, but he kept working.

A. contrast B. addition C. choice

2. Identify what the conjunction is showing (addition, contrast, result, choice, negative).

a) I like apples, and I like bananas.

b) She is poor, yet she is honest.

c) The shop was closed, so we went home.

d) He is tall, but he runs slowly.

e) Neither the boy nor the girl was late.

f) The bell rang, and the students went home.

g) He worked hard, but he failed.

h) The sun was shining, so we went out.

i) She is not lazy, nor is she rude.

j) You can stay here, or you can go home.

k) They were tired, so they went to sleep.

l) She sings, and she dances.

3. Rearrange the words and add a conjunction to make a correct sentence.

a) we / cricket / football / played

b) tired / he / working / kept / he / was

c) she / the / passed / studied / test / she

d) home / went / was / it / we / raining

e) pizza / eat / can / we / burgers

f) shop / was / the / closed / we / waited

g) she / is / strict / kind

h) I / the / opened / the / out / dog / ran / door

4. Label each as Correct Use or Wrong Use of a coordinating conjunction:

a) I knocked on the door, but no one answered.

b) He is poor, and he is honest.

c) I was hungry, so I ate food.

d) The bell rang, or the students went home.

e) She is small, yet she is strong.

f) They studied hard, but they passed the exam.

g) We stayed home, and we watched TV.

h) He is tall, so he runs slowly.