Conjunctions

Level 3: ★★ ★

1. Finish the sentence with your own idea and explain why the conjunction is correct:

- |                                   |                                   |
|-----------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| a) I was hungry, so ____.         | e) I opened the window, but ____. |
| b) He is poor, yet ____.          | f) They were tired, so ____.      |
| c) She is neither lazy, nor ____. | g) She sings well, and ____.      |
| d) We played football, and ____.  | h) You can read a book, or ____.  |

2. Finish each sentence in two different ways, using two different conjunctions:

- |                              |                                    |
|------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| a) She worked hard, __ ____. | d) The dog barked, __ ____.        |
| b) The sun set, __ ____.     | e) I knocked on the door, __ ____. |
| c) We were tired, __ ____.   | f) We went to the park, __ ____.   |

3. Find the wrong conjunction and rewrite the sentence correctly:

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| a) I wanted to play, so it started raining. | f) She sings, or she dances.              |
| b) I was tired, but I went to bed.          | g) I was hungry, but I ate food.          |
| c) The shop was closed, and we went home.   | h) She is not lazy, nor is she careless.  |
| d) He studied hard, yet he passed the test. | i) It was raining, so we stayed indoors.  |
| e) The dog barked, so the cat ran away.     | j) The shop was closed, but we went home. |

4. Combine each pair into a compound sentence using the word in brackets:

- The sun was shining. We went for a walk. (so)
- I was tired. I kept working. (yet)
- He studied well. He failed the test. (but)
- We bought fruits. We bought vegetables. (and)
- She is kind. She is strict. (but)
- I can write a story. I can draw a picture. (or)

5. Turn the short sentences into stronger compound sentences with a suitable conjunction:

- |                                       |  |
|---------------------------------------|--|
| a) I was hungry. I ate food.          | e) She is kind. She is firm.           |
| b) The shop was closed. We went home. | f) I opened the door. The dog ran out. |
| c) He worked hard. He failed.         | g) They were tired. They rested.       |
| d) The sun set. The stars appeared.   | h) The baby cried. The mother came.    |

6. Write original sentences for each conjunction:

- a) and    b) or    c) nor    d) but    e) yet    f) so

7. Write compound sentences using conjunctions for these situations:

- Two things you do after school.
- Two favourite foods.
- Something you like, but something you dislike.
- Two things your best friend does.
- Something that happened, so what you did next.
- A choice you make at home.
- Something surprising (yet true).
- Something neither you nor your friend likes.
