

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transition Words

Level 3: ★★ ★

1. Find the mistake in the use of transition words and rewrite correctly:

a) He was tired, so he went to bed, and he read a book.

Example: He was tired, so he went to bed. Then, he read a book.

b) First, we ate lunch, finally, we played football.

c) The cat is cute, but it is also sweet though.

d) He is poor, so honest.

e) We like sports, like and cricket.

f) The teacher was strict, also she punished the class.

g) She studied hard, finally she failed.

2. Complete the mini-paragraph with suitable transition words to keep logical flow:

a) He opened his notebook. _____, he wrote the heading. _____, he answered the questions. _____, he closed the notebook.

b) We visited a big zoo. _____, we saw many animals. _____, we watched lions and elephants. _____, we clicked photos. _____, we bought snacks.

c) We planted a seed in a pot. _____, we watered it every day. _____, it grew into a small plant. _____, we felt proud.

3. Rewrite sentences by adding at least two transition words to improve flow:

a) The dog barked. The cat ran away.

d) He worked hard. He succeeded.

b) I read a book. I went to sleep.

e) The shop sells toys. It sells games.

c) We cleaned the room. We decorated it.

f) The food was spicy. It was tasty.

4. Write short dialogues between two people, inserting transitions naturally:

a) A friend describing steps to bake a cake.

b) A teacher explaining rules for a game.

c) Two children planning their day at the park.

d) Two friends comparing cricket and football.

5. Write 3–4 sentence mini-paragraphs using the given transition words:

a) first, next, finally

e) like, for example

b) and, also

f) first, then, last

c) but, though

g) in conclusion, also

d) so, finally

h) but, so

6. Use at least 4 different transition words to write a connected short essay:

a) Describe your morning routine.

b) Explain how to make a sandwich.

c) Tell a story about a picnic.

d) Compare two favourite sports.

e) Write about how you prepared for a test.

f) Describe your best friend.